About the ICF

The Italian Catholic Federation (ICF) is a non-profit, family-oriented organization founded in San Francisco in 1924 to unite Italian immigrants in their faith, community, and pride in shared heritage.

The ICF encompasses a spirit and vitality that has allowed it to grow today to thousands of men, women, and children of all ages across the United States, whose charitable works within and beyond parish boundaries assist, elevate, enrich, and invigorate the lives of countless numbers of people.

ICF branch members actively participate in:

- building fellowship with other members in social and religious events,
- providing financial and volunteer assistance to parishes and parish ministries,
- supporting local and national charities,
- supporting seminarian education,
- offering grants to individuals with disabilities to assist them towards greater independence,
- awarding college scholarships to students, and
- recognizing humanitarian work in the community with national awards.

Join Us

When you become a member of the ICF, you are joining a national family of other Catholics who enjoy celebrating their heritage and sharing in faith, charitable works, fun, and fellowship.

Branch members typically meet on a monthly basis and may share a meal together, enjoy an interesting program, and build lasting friendships with other members they meet.

You may be wondering if you need to have Italian heritage to join the ICF. No, you don't! While the ICF proudly celebrates its Italian origins, the ideals of the ICF are shared by many. Today, the ICF welcomes and encourages Catholics of all heritages to become members, strengthening the organization through their diversity.

We invite you to contact your local ICF branch to become a member!
