Initiation

The Branch President, Mentor, District Mentor, or Central Council Member may conduct the initiation.

(If more than one person conducts the initiation, you may divide the responsibilities of the reading into parts.)

The person conducting the initiation begins:

(Part 1)

I am honored at this time to introduce (a candidate/the candidates) for initiation. As the Secretary reads your name, please stand.

We are happy to welcome you as (a member/members) of the Italian Catholic Federation. It is our hope that this organization will become a part of your family life: religiously, culturally, and socially.

The Federation was founded in 1924 to uphold and develop the religious spirit among its members and to spread that spirit throughout the community. As Christians, we continue the tradition of love, hospitality, and works of charity as signs of Christ's peace among us. Thus, the Italian Catholic Federation is an excellent example of the laity's participation in the apostolic mission of the Catholic Church.

(Part 2)

Our banner (point to it) is displayed at all meetings and functions of the Federation. Its colors, white and gold, are the colors of the Church. In the center, you will observe the four letters around the cross. They are the initials of these words: Faith, Patria or Fatherland, Italy, and America.

The Catholic Faith is the foundation of our Federation and the spread of that Faith is its most direct purpose. By our good example, we must devote our efforts toward reaching out in unity and love to our Christian community, as well as to those of us who need to renew our Catholic heritage.

Fatherland, or Italy, is the country of origin for the great majority of the Federation members. It is also the historical mother of all Latins and the spiritual mother of all Catholics.

America is the name of our great country, and as citizens we affirm our willingness to obey its laws and respect its institutions.

Below the cross you see these Latin words “IGNEM VENI MITTERE.” “I CAME TO LIGHT A FIRE.” This is the motto of the Federation. (Added 10/2014)

(Part 3)

The structure of the Italian Catholic Federation is the same as other religious, fraternal, and charitable organizations. The Central Council, which acts as a Board of Directors, is the governing body, formulating and directing the programs that the Branches follow.

The Branches are the basic units of the Federation and are organized along parish lines. These Branches are urged to support their pastors and participate fully in the life of the parish.

The District Councils are composed of delegates from the Branches within a certain boundary. The Districts have administrative, but not legislative power, and continue to further the ideals and goals of the Federation on a much larger scale than a Branch can do.

(Part 4)

(Candidate/Candidates): You have heard a short explanation of the program and structure of the Federation. I now ask you to please raise your right hand, place your left hand upon your heart, and repeat this promise after me:

I promise - upon my honor - to keep myself a worthy member - of the Italian Catholic Federation - to observe its laws and statutes - to promote its ideals - and to love and help my fellow members - as more closely united - in the Christian family.

I now declare you (a member/members) of the Italian Catholic Federation, Branch No. _____ under the title of _____

and, as such, entitled to all the privileges of the Federation. Our meetings begin at ____ p.m. on the _____ of each month. If the meeting is in session, the Sentinel will admit you and you may take a seat.

(The person conducting the initiation turns to the membership and continues.)

I am very happy to introduce our new (member/members) who (is/are) now a part of our great family. Congratulations.

(You may ask the new (member/members) to say a few words about themselves. Then they may be seated.)

Ch' Egli ci guidi sul buon sentier,
Se nella lotta Ei ci sorregga
Sarà del male vinto il poter.*

*Sorge da queste squadre-il grido della Fè
Noi vogliam Dio ch' è nostro Padre
Noi vogliam Dio ch' è nostro Re.*

Portiamo il fervido nostro vigor,
Pronti a difender, nobil coorte.
Di Cristo il nome che ci sta in cuor.*

Sorge, ecc.

*Dinanzi al nostro simbol crociato
Sparisca l' odio e la viltà:
Uniti e stretti sfidiam l' agguato
Del mondo folle, dell' empietà.*

Sorge, ecc.

*Su noi risplende santa la luce
Che vien da Roma e il Suo Pastor:
La Chiesa è guida e Cristo il Duce
Che insegna a noi dovere e onor.*

Sorge, ecc.

Uphold the Faith and sing:
O we want God Who is our Father;
O we want God Who is our King.*

We gave our vigor from the start;
Quick to defend, O noble people,
The name of Christ that's in our heart.*

*Before our symbol of the Cross,
Hate and evil are dispelled;
United and strong we meet the challenge
And worldly folly shall be felled.*

*On us shines the Light so holy,
Which comes from Rome and Holy Father;
The Church our guide, and Christ our Leader;
They teach us all duty and honor.*
