2. Consider the Branch Report in three parts:
  - a. Save the date for upcoming events.
  - b. Summary of previous successful events.
  - c. Recognition of specific members.
3. Send the Branch Reports and Photos to the correct email: editor@icf.org
4. Clearly identify your submission by including your Branch Number and Name in the Subject Line.
5. Limit Branch Reports to 250 words. That's about half a page. If you go beyond the limit, your article will get cut and you might not like what is left out.

6. Attach your Branch Report as a Word or pdf file.
You may also write it into the email message. No need to worry about formatting. Do make sure the names and dates are accurate.
7. Send 3 to 4 photos at most for your submission.
These may be .jpg, .tif or .pdf files. Do not embed a photo in a Word file. Pick the photos that mean the most to your Branch. If you have additional photos, you may send them if you include a ranking number to their use.
8. Include meaningful captions that include Branch Number to make your photos connect with members. Check the spelling of members' names, too.
9. Maximize photo clarity and size by saving them at a high dpi of 150 to 300. Low dpi means small, fuzzy pictures. Changing to low fidelity on your phone to maximize space, creates fuzzy pictures.
10. Include photos of different members to make more people feel seen. Four photos with the same people are less effective than a variety of members in action.
